

CHAIR OF THE FCL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

AARON KOLKO

CohnReznick

With more than a decade of experience in audit and transaction advisory, Aaron Kolko provides buy-side and sell-side due diligence to strategic and private equity clients within various industries including manufacturing and distribution, chemicals, retail and consumer, software and technology, financial services, healthcare, and construction.

His financial due diligence experience includes quality of earnings, working capital and debt and debt-like analyses on complex transactions, including carve-outs and cross border engagements. Aaron has worked on over 100 transactions, with enterprise values ranging from $1 million to $2 billion. Aaron's due diligence experience also includes purchase agreement commentary and performing industry-specific gross margin and backlog assessments.

Before joining CohnReznick, Aaron was a transaction advisory services director for a major assurance, tax, and financial advisory services firm.
