

BOARD DIRECTOR
COLIN POWELL

Pinnacle Accounting & Finance

Upon graduating from Ohio State University, Colin started his career in public accounting before advancing into the corporate accounting world.

Throughout his own personal career advancement decisions, and from experiencing firsthand how difficult it can be for companies to fulfill diverse staffing needs, Colin developed a passion of helping organizations in talent acquisition, and professionals in career advancement. He decided to focus his career on fulfilling this passion.

Colin's client experience ranges from Fortune 500 companies to smaller private organizations. His deep-rooted professional network within the Pittsburgh region is attributable to his strong personal ties, having grown up in Mount Lebanon and in working for accounting and finance companies across the Pittsburgh area.

Colin prides himself on a genuine passion for helping Pittsburgh-area organizations gain access to the top talent for their interim staffing, consulting, and permanent hire needs, and helping such professionals make decisions to reach their career aspirations.
