

FCL DIRECTOR Paige Myers

Totum Realty Advisors

Paige brings a unique perspective to her role at Totum Realty focusing on client success and business development. With experience in wide variety of service verticals including Event Sales and Execution, Hospitality Operations and Management, Business Development and Project Management – Paige’s focus has always been creating memorable experiences and immaculate spaces for clients and stakeholders while maintaining operational efficiency and financial practicality. Paige possesses what some have referred to as “intensity” and is excited to use that to continue learning and growing with the talented team at Totum.

Paige earned bachelor’s Degrees in Advertising and Public Relations and in Hospitality Management from The Pennsylvania State University. Outside of work, she stays busy loving on her two rescue dogs, hiking, working on her house and spending time with friends and family.

