

BOARD DIRECTOR

Andrew Sassaman

BDO

Andrew is the Business Development Director for BDO in Western Pennsylvania. He is passionate about solving complex business challenges and brings together BDO's assurance, tax, and more than 400 advisory professionals to support clients' strategic objectives.

Andrew works closely with privately held, publicly traded, private equity-backed, ESOP, and family-owned businesses, with a strong focus on growth initiatives, digital transformation, operational improvement, and M&A activity.

With over 20 years of experience, Andrew has a proven track record of connecting the right people and capabilities to help organizations navigate change, execute transactions, and unlock value. He is known for bringing together diverse teams, fostering meaningful relationships, and generating proactive ideas that drive results.

Deeply engaged in the Western Pennsylvania business community, Andrew is committed to supporting the region's deal ecosystem and helping companies and investors achieve their growth objectives.

